It is a delight to welcome everyone to our fourth Golcar Lily Day. It is hard to believe that five years have gone since we first got together in April 2006 to discuss the possibility of holding a festival in Golcar. There has been a lot of fun and laughter since that day, not to mention a great deal of hard work and I hope that today will bring a great deal of pleasure to everyone involved.

I would like to give a very warm welcome to Mary Sykes who is going to open the day for us. Many of us remember Mary as our health visitor and I am very glad that she has agreed to start off another great day for our village.

By coincidence, today is the 65th anniversary of VE Day and we have taken this as our theme. Happily I have seen the menus for the different venues and I think I can safely say that there will be no chance of austerity or rationing.

Once again we have music and art work, feasting and entertainment. I hope that you all enjoy everything that has been arranged and support the Golcar Lily Day workers enthusiastically. The yellow buses will transport you free of charge to the outlying parts of the village where you will be made very welcome.

Thank you to everyone for all that they have done. Please enjoy as much as you possibly can.

Mary Sykes has lived in Golcar all her life: “It’s still a village, still a community”, she says, “the people are friendly, there are hills to contend with but they provide very nice views.” Her first school was Knowl Bank. “In our first year, each child had a camp bed and after lunch we had a nap for half an hour”, she recalls. “There was a school trip to the Empire Exhibition in Glasgow. We left early from Golcar station and returned at midnight. It was the first time I’d stayed up this late but I’d often wondered how dark it was at midnight.”

From the age of 6, Mary wanted to be a nurse — even then, she was putting bandages on dolls and friends. In 1945 she started general nursing training in Halifax, followed by midwifery training in 1948 and district nurse training in 1953. In 1958, preparing to move to Darlington to work in the midwifery training unit, she visited her GP in Golcar for a medical. He said, “Why go to Darlington? We could do with a nurse in Golcar.”

Already committed, Mary went to Darlington but didn’t forget the doctor’s comments ... The next year, she took up the post of district nurse and midwife in Golcar, staying until she retired in 1984.

In 2000, she realised just how much nursing had changed. “I thought it would be a good idea to write down my memoirs”, she says, “I wanted to record how it was done before. I couldn’t do the job on my typewriter so I got a computer, learnt how to use it, and produced the manuscript.”

An honorary life deacon at Golcar Baptist Church, Mary edited the church’s magazine for over 20 years. Gardening gives her rewards and satisfaction, and she also enjoys sewing, knitting and photography.

40s evening: Friday 7 May, Golcar Liberal Club, 8pm

A 40s evening is the ideal way to get 'in the mood' for Lily Day. You will be able to dance to tunes played by the University of Huddersfield Big Band and sing along with Honley Ladies. 40s dress is optional.

Tickets are £10, which includes a 40s style supper. They are available from Renaissance 2 or phone 653697.

Stranger in the window

Each participating shop in Golcar has one item in its window that does not fit in with what the shop sells. Can you find all these items?

The prize is a £10 voucher for a fish and chip supper.

The competition runs in the week before Lily Day; collect your entry form from the library, the butcher or Renaissance 2 on or after 1 May.

Minibuses

As well as all the entertainment in Golcar, there's also lots to do at the venues. Two free minibuses will be operating on Lily Day to drop you off at a venue and then either take you to another venue or bring you back to Golcar. Hop aboard to visit the Golcar Lily (Bolster Moor), Sycamore Avenue, Golcar Baptist, Parkwood, Providence, and Scapegoat Hill.

VE Memories

I was only 7 at the time and I have no memories of VE Day itself. I remember a party we had in Handel Street after VE Day. I went to my aunty's nearby and we put up bunting of small union jacks on the hooks for the clothes line. There was food on tables outside and family and friends were eating, drinking and celebrating.

Connie Pearson

I had 3 brothers in the army and I was so thankful that it was over for them. There was a general feeling of how wonderful it was. A few days after VE Day, we had a street party in West End Road. We made a banner by sewing letters onto a blanket and hung it from a bedroom window. We put food out on the wall tops but everything was rationed so we couldn't splash out with food. There was just jubilation that it was over and that the boys would be coming back.

I was 20 at the time. It had been a long haul – 6 years – but there was a lovely atmosphere with everyone sharing the common cause. The news came over the radio, for there was no television then. We were all excited and happy. Tuesday 8 May was a poor day, overcast and foggy, but there was a procession through the village. I think they went on to the recreation ground on Manor Road. It was the start of celebrations that went on through the summer.

Meet: St John's Church gates, Church Street

Distance: Approximately 3 kilometres.

A shorter walk is also possible.

Duration: Approximately 1 hour 30 minutes

There are 3 fairly steep climbs but they are only short.

Golcar Lily Day Environment Group

This group works tirelessly throughout the year to improve our locality:

- The group organises regular litter picks. It has been awarded a new litter bin by Keep Britain Tidy for collecting the most litter in Kirklees' Big Tidy Up event
- In January, it held a coffee morning to raise funds for bat and bird boxes to go around the village
- With money raised at last year's Golcar Lily Day, additional plaques for the ginnel trail have been purchased

- A new notice board has been put up in Town End car park and a finger post in Jubilee Square
- Funding from Kirklees Environment Agency has been used to update the ginnel walk leaflets

Colne Valley Museum 1970 – 2010

Yes, we're 40 years old this year. Look out for the celebrations that will start in November, 40 years after the museum first opened to the public, and continue until June 2011, the 40th anniversary of the museum's official opening. We started with a single cottage in Cliffe Ash and are now expanding into the 4th cottage in the row.

There's been lots of hard work along the way for our volunteers but lots of fun too. Do you want to help us build on the foundations of the first 40 years and implement the museum's expansion? We always need more volunteers to help with stewarding, running the shop and café, school visits, publicity and marketing, craft demonstrating (we can teach you), maintenance, cooking, housekeeping, and looking after our archive collection. We really do have something for everyone. If you want to know more, contact us.

Thirty years old in July, the Winkle Club organises fun-based events throughout the year to raise funds which it then distributes to needy causes within the Golcar area. To find out about the club's events throughout the year, keep an eye on their notice board in the library window.

Permanent features in the village that the club has funded include the war memorial in Jubilee Square, pictured, and various benches — for example, the one in St John's churchyard.

A men-only club, the Winkle Club is limited to a maximum of 21 active members at any time. Membership is by invitation only. All members are required to carry their 'winkle' with them at all times; when challenged, they must expose their winkle for inspection, for a fee of £1. If a member fails to do this, he incurs a £1 fine.

Jack O'Mitre

Stuart, Joanne, Cath & Martin give a warm welcome to all customers old and new.

The Jack O' Mitre dates back to 1457 and is the quintessential experience for anyone wishing to sample the unique ambience of a traditional English pub. The Jack (as it is affectionately known) sports log fires, stunning cuisine in the restaurant, hand-pulled ales, fine wines and — most of all — a friendly and welcoming atmosphere.

Our food is carefully prepared while you wait. We use only quality produce that is, where possible, sourced from our own farm or local suppliers — giving all our meals that special homemade taste.

Food is served Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday, Saturday 12.00 to 14.00 and 17.45 to 20.45; Friday 12.00 to 20.45; Sunday 12.00 to 19.30

Closed Mondays

Golcar Sing

Sunday 9 May, 2.45, playing fields at Golcar JN&I School

Everyone welcome; bring your own chair. If it's raining, the Sing will be in Providence Methodist Church.

This will be the third Sing since it was re-introduced in 2008. There was glorious sunshine in 2008; in 2009 there wasn't and the Sing was moved to Providence church. Let's hope we're lucky this year.

The programme contains hymns and 3 choruses from Handel's Messiah; the Huddersfield Wind Band is providing the music. The choir will comprise singers from local choirs and churches.
