

Golcar Lily Day

Saturday 10 May 2008

Price £1

Welcome to our second Golcar Lily Day. There's something for everyone and we hope you enjoy the wide range of entertainment and activities. The theme for 2008 is 'Do you remember?' It has been a good excuse to get out all the old photographs and souvenirs and to see how many memories they stir up of past times and places.

Golcar's Environment Group works hard all year to improve the village's appearance with clean ups and flower planting. This year the group has also spent time identifying the many wells in the area, some of which still exist. There will be opportunities to visit them and you will also be able to take a walk through the ginnels again.

This year, Lily Day is stretching right across Golcar: from Bolster Moor and Scapegoat Hill to the Sycamore Avenue shops, from Golcar Baptist church to Parkwood Methodist church — and all points in between. As well as the usual local transport services, two free yellow buses will be running around the different venues. And don't forget that Golcar is a beautiful place for a walk.

Enjoy the feasts of food, drink and entertainment. Have a lovely day.

Sue Starr, Chair of the Golcar Lily Day Group

Opening Ceremony 10.00 Jubilee Square

Lily Day will get off to a great start with some familiar Golcar faces:

- Grandad (Ronald Ellis) and Aunt Lizzie (Sheila Osborne), pictured, are well known characters at the Colne Valley Museum. Many people have very happy memories of visiting the museum and experiencing the 19th century life that Ronald and Sheila help to recreate. After arriving by horse-drawn carriage, they will open Lily Day 2008.
- Golcar Band. Our village's very own band.

Thanks to Reg Mallinson for providing the horse-drawn carriage.

Art exhibition

The Colne Valley Arts Society is presenting its annual exhibition at the Colne Valley Museum from Saturday 19 April to Sunday 8 June. It's a great opportunity to see a wonderful display of work from our talented local artists. Most items are for sale; plus there's the usual bargain corner that's full of items to buy and take home immediately.

Library

To celebrate 2008 being the National Year of Reading, the library is holding 6 free story-telling sessions in the library garden (weather permitting, otherwise indoors). Each session will last about 45 minutes and include a mix of stories, music and simple crafts. The sessions are aimed at families but everyone is welcome to come and join in.

Session start times: 10.00, 11.00, 12.00, 1.00, 2.00 and 3.00

Full details of the themes for each session will be displayed in the library window on Lily Day.

Brewery open day

Golcar Brewery, in Swallow Lane, invites you to look around its premises between 12.00 and 2.00. Morris dancers will get things started at 12.00.

For Lily Day, the brewery is making a special beer, which is available in the beer tent on the vicarage lawn.

Transport collection

Located in Knowl Road, next to Providence church, the collection mostly contains vehicles made in Huddersfield by Karrier during the 1920s. Some vehicles are fully restored, some are currently being restored.

Stranger in the window

Each participating shop in Golcar has one item in its window that does not fit in with what the shop sells. Can you find all these items? The prize is a £10 voucher for a fish and chip supper. The competition runs in the week before Lily Day; collect your entry form from the library, the butcher or Renaissance 2 on or after 3 May.

Guided ginnel walks

The Environment Group is escorting two walks around Golcar's ginnels:

Times: 11.00 and 2.00

Meet: church gates, Church Street

Distance: approximately 2.5 Kilometres.

A shorter walk is also possible.

Duration: approximately 1 hour 20 minutes

There are one or two fairly steep climbs but they are only short. Wear suitable footwear and if required bring a stick or walking pole.

Maps are available on Lily Day from the Golcar Lily stall and the library.

Wells and troughs. Years ago, there were numerous wells and troughs around Golcar; many have now disappeared but some can still be seen. The Environment Group has established where most of the wells and troughs were and has produced a map, which is available from the library.

3.00 to 6.00, The Liberal Club

Using skills as diverse as acting for camera, directing skills and stand-up comedy, the workshops promote confidence and self-expression. These free drop-in sessions are inspiring, energising and, above all, fun.

Jack O' Mitre A Comedy Night Venue

Stuart, Joanne, Cath & Martin give a warm welcome to all customers old and new. The Jack O' Mitre dates back to 1457 and is the quintessential experience for anyone wishing to sample the unique ambience of a traditional English pub. The Jack (as it is affectionately known) sports log fires, stunning cuisine in the restaurant, hand pulled ales, fine wines and most of all - a friendly and welcoming atmosphere.

Our food is carefully prepared while you wait. We use only quality produce that is, where possible, sourced from our own farm or local suppliers - giving all our meals that special homemade taste.

Food is served from 12.00 to 14.00 at lunch time and 17.45 to 20.45 in the evenings every day except Monday, when we are closed.

2.45 Golcar Sing, playing fields at Golcar JN&I School

Everyone welcome; bring your own chair. If it's raining, the Sing will be in Providence Methodist church.

This is the first Golcar Sing since the 1960s. The programme contains hymns and 3 choruses from Handel's Messiah; the Huddersfield Wind Band is providing the music. The Sing's choir will comprise singers from local choirs and churches. Everyone is encouraged to sing the hymns.

The choir needs more singers and you are welcome to join us, bringing along a copy of the Messiah if possible.

The photograph below shows a Golcar Sing. Records show the Sing began around 1900 but we don't know exactly when. Malcolm Fairless, the conductor of today's Sing, wants to find out more about the Sing's history. If you have any information, please call him on 01484 643252.

6.00 Golcar Lily service, Providence Methodist Church

The service celebrates Lily Day and also the anniversary of Providence's Sunday School. It's a service for everyone and non-regular church-goers will be most welcome.
